NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

SOMETHING OF A COMMOTION. All of the New Measures Are Passed With

One Exception. THE TRIENNIAL EPISCOPAL MEETING

NEW YORK, October 3 .- At the Protest ant Episcopal Convention, the order of the day was the consideration of the additions and alterations to the book of common prayer adopted at the last general convention. A vote was taken on the adoption of the first of the 18 resolutions approving of changes. It refers to the order of reading the psaiter and the Holy Scriptures. The resolution was adopted. The second resolution relating to a change in the order for daily morning prayer was then placed on its passage and adopted.

When the afternoon session opened Rev. Dr. Hauckel, of Virginia, moved that the rules be suspended to permit the handing in of petitions for the organization of new dioceses so that they might be referred to the Com mittee on New Dioceses. This was agreed to, and petitions for the organization of new dioceses in Southern California, Colorado and Missouri were handed in. Michigan asked to have the Peninsula made a mis-

COMMON PRAYER CHANGES. The work of voting on the resolutions proposing changes in the "Book of Common Prayer" was then resumed, after a message from the house of bishops announcing that they had taken up the same subject, had been read. The ninth and tenth resolutions were adopted, each finding only one clerical and one lay opponent. Resolution two was adopted unanimously.

Consideration of resolution 12 was postponed, and resolution 13 was voted on. It makes additions to the offertory. The vote on it was: Clerical, 30 ayes, 18 noes, 1 divided; lay, 29 ayes, 17 noes and 1 divided, and it was accordingly adopted. There was but I lay vote opposed to resolution 14, and resolutions 15, 16, 17 and 18 were also adopted with unanimity.

Just after the vote on resolution 14 was taken two messages from the House of Bishops were received. The first announced that the House of Bishops had adopted con ditional on the concurrence of the House of Deputies the entire 18 resolutions upon which the House of Deputies had been voting all day, and was still voting. THE DISPUTED POINT.

Action on all the other resolutions having been taken, the Twelfth resolution came up for consideration. Dr. Huntington said that personally he was opposed to the reso-lution, and therefore did not wish to move its adoption. He suggested that Rev. Dr. Egar, of New York, a member of the committee who was in favor of it, make the motion. This Dr. Egar did. He also spoke in support of the resolution, which was taken in the order for the administration of the Lord's Supper for the rubric, Substitute the following rubric, placing after Substitute the following rubric, placing after it the creed: Then shall be said the creed commonly called the Nicene or else the Apostle's creed, but the creed may be omitted if it hath been said immediately before in morning prayer, provided that the Nicene 'creed shall be said on Christmas Day, Easter Day, Ascention Day, Whitsunday and Trinity Sunday.

Dr. *Egar said the Nicene creed formed over or the destrict of the Chyrale and creek.

part of the doctrine of the Church, and sine many priests never read it it should be made obligatory. To discard the Nicene creed would be, he said, to cut themselves off from the Western church.

SOME OPPOSITION. Dr. Huntington said be firmly believed in the Nicene creed, and was personally in favor of reading it as part of the communion service, but the Committee on Laturgical Revision stood pledged not to introduce any doctrinal changes, and he looked upon this as one. He did not think it expedient to force the reading of the Nicene creed on those who objected to its reading.

 Corning Judd, one of the Chicago lay delegates, spoke at length in opposition to the resolution. He said the Nicene creed it presented was not the real Nicene creed, but one full of errors of the Roman church. If the convention should adopt it 5,000 times over he for one would not recite it. Mr. Judd was reminded that he had spoken over 15 minutes, and the President brought him to a stop. It was moved that his time be extended, and on this a division was called. It resulted in Mr. Judd's favor by a vote of 172 to 69

Rev. Arthur Lawrence, of Massachusetts, spoke in opposition to the resolution. He said the recitation of the Nicene creed was not obligatory in baptism or confirmation, and he did not think it should be made so at the communion service. NOT SETTLED YET.

Rev. Dr. Goodwin also opposed the resolu-tion, but on different grounds. He believes in the Nicene creed as part of the doctrine of the Church, but the Church was already lax in enforcing its laws as regards belief and he thought nothing would be gained by more laws on the subject. As it is now a man may believe what he pleases and profess his disbelief, and yet nothing happens to him.

He did not understand how men who disbelieve in the Nicene creed can now remain in the ministry, but if the reading of it was made obligatory such men would read it, and he did not believe in laying an additional burden on their conscience. The House adjourned with the question still pending. It will be taken up as the order of the day at 11 o'clock to-morrow.

GRAND MUSIC PLANNED

For To-Night and Balance of the Week at St. Philomena's. The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the erection of St. Philomena's Church, Fourteenth street and Liberty avenue, begun last evening and will be continued during the rest of the week. St. Philomena's was the first German Roman Catholic church erected in this diocese, and is the oldest existing Catholic church in the city. Last evening an appropriate sermon was delivered, and this morning at 9 o'clock solemn high mass will be sung, and at which Haydn's No. 1 Mass will be given; a sermon and services to follow in the evening. On Saturday morning at 9 o'clock there be will high mass and Mount's seventh mass will be seventhy mass will be at 9 o'clock there be will high mass and Momart's seventh mass will be sung, with service in the evening. Bishop Phelan will preside at the high mass at 10 o'clock on Sunday, and Haydn's Third Mass will be rendered. This mass was composed by Haydn for the coronation of Francis the Second of Austria, and is known as the "Coronation Mass." It will be sung for the first time in its completeness in this city on this occasion. Curto's Offertory, Vogel's orchestration to the Regime Term, and Frey's Veni Spiritus Sanctus will also be given at this mass. The chorus will number 60 voices, and the orchestra 30 will number 60 voices, and the orchestra 30 pieces, the whole musical programme being under the direction of the organist, Mr. John S. Vogel, of Penn avenue. The solo-John S. Vogel, of Penn avenue. The solo-ists are: Sopranos, the Misses Sara Vogel and Philomena Buerkle; altos, Misses Katie Folger and Philomena Rosswog and Mrs. Traub; tenors, J. J. Aland and Wilhelm Letskuss, and bassos, Fred J. Adams, Joseph Reiman and Phil Jacobs. On Monday morning a grand requiem mass will be sung for the deceased clergy-men of the order and members of the con-gregation. At night the spire of the church will be illuminated for several hours, and a selection of music will be rendered from the will be illuminated for several hours, and a selection of music will be rendered from the roof. All of the original congregation have been invited to attend, and medals com-memorative of the occasion will be presented to them. Memorials of the event will be also given to all who were married from the church. This is the first time that any cele-bration of the kied has occurred in Catholic Chinese lanterny on the outside and incandescent electric lamps for the interior made the edifice brilliant last night. The tall and graceful spire, which is over 150 feet, is strung with American and Papal flags.

NO MONEY THERE YET.

Beaver's Supply of Cash Falls to Reac Johnstown-The Contractor Borrows Funds to Pay the Men-Neighborhood News.

JOHNSTOWN, October 3.-The money which Governor Beaver was to have sent here to pay the State forces has not arrived Sufficient funds were raised by the contractor and his friends, and most of the men tractor and his friends, and most of the men were paid off to-day. As a great number of them were dismissed, many of them turned in to have a good time, and the streets to night are full of howling, drunken men.

Captain Hamilton states that about 490 men are employed by the State now, most of them being at work in the river. Notwithstanding the fact that Secretary Kremer announced that he was coming here to begin paying the relief money to-day he has been here all day and no money has been paid. Further than that arrangements have not been concluded with the bank here for cashing the checks, and it is stated by those in authority that this cannot be done in less than four days. The members of the Board of Inquiry are becoming very indignant that they should be charged with the delay now, as they have been absolutely ready for the past ten days. The forces working in the river to-day find that a large portion of the obstructions now to be removed were deposited there by the State workmen in cleaning up some time ago.

A TERRIFIC EXPLOSION

Three Men Horribly Burned by Molten Cinder and a Hot Iron Bar.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SCOTTDALE, October &-About 4 o'clock this afternoon while George Rutter, an employe at the Scottdale Iron and Steel Company's rolling mill at this place, was attempting to reing mill at this place, was attempting to re-move the cinder from the pile heating furnace, water was splashed into the mold, causing a terrific explosion. The molten cinder struck Rutter in the breast and the lower part of the body, burning him in a terrible manuer. The force of the explosion threw him almost 15 feet on to a white hot bar of iron which burned feet on to a white hot bar of iron which burned his back and hands almost to a crisp. Henry Ramsey and Jacob Dick were also burned by the flying cinder, but not seriously. The roof of the mill was set on fire by the ex-plosion, but was extinguished before much damage was done. Rutter will likely die.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. HAZELTON, October 3 .- This morning while Martin Jaskovitz, miner, John Slinsky and Tamaso Guardo, laborers, were prying down top rock in No. 11 celliery of the L. & W. B. C. Co., at Audenreid, a mass of coal fell upon them, completely crushing the two former, and, it is thought, fatally injuring the latter.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 CUMBERLAND, MD., October 8.-The large mait house of William Leonard was destroyed by fire to-night. The loss on the structure is $16,000, with insurance $4,000. At this hour the fire is still raging and many other buildings are how strong we are in BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS and OVER-COATS. If they did, they would certainly buy their Boys' outfits from us. Our assortment is repre entative of the newest styles, and is the largest in the two cities. In KILT SUITS, sizes from 2 to 6 years, we are showing the cutest things ever designed in both one and two-piece styles in neat Plaids plain Cheviots, Cloths and Velvets Prices range from $2 to $10, which fact is in itself evidence of com-

Yesterday was the banner day in SOME PEOPLE

In SHORT PANT SUITS, size from 4 to 15 years, we have a lin that outdoes all previous displays -no end to the variety of patterns and styles—plain and fancy Cheviots, dressy Tricots and Worsteds, and durable Cassimeres, in single and double breasted coats, in twopiece Suits and three-button Cutaways in Vest Suits. Prices all the way from $2 75 to $14.

Men's FALL OVERCOATS and SUITS are moving freely for two reasons: the cool weather for one, but the other and most effective is our low prices. If it is true that "the hat make the man," then we are doing a heap of good: we are selling lots of good hats. Latest styles at lowest prices.

A GENUINE BOOM!

935 Penn Ave., Between Ninth and Tenth Sts.

We are at present having a genuine boom in our business, and why? Well, for three reasons:

(We have the most complete stock, the BECAUSE | we have the most complete stock, the finest designs and the latest styles in the city. BECAUSE \ \ \text{We can give you anything and everything with which to furnish your homes}

These are three assertions which would be called rash if we were not in a position to back them up, which we are. We kindly invite you to call at our place of business, 307 Wood street, where, in a very few moments, you will be assured that everything we say is true.

TO GIVE YOU AN IDEA

Of how competent we are to have your trade, go to the Exposition; you cannot miss seeing our display. Here we show you what no other firm in the city can do,

A Complete House

Of four rooms, and every article in them is positively from our stock at the store. You are welcome to come in and inspect everything, and in quoting you prices on anything we do not actually STUN you, as some others do.
